ARTICLE III
PARTICIPATION

3.01 PARTICIPATION

Any Employee shall become a Participant in the Plan provided he has satisfied the eligibility requirements for participation under the Basic Retirement Plan.

ARTICLE IV

EXCESS ANNUITY BENEFIT

4.01 AMOUNT OF EXCESS ANNUITY BENEFIT

The amount of a participant's Excess Annuity Plan Benefit is the excess of (a) over (b), determined independently for his Basic Retirement Plan(s) and, if applicable, the Deferred Compensation Plan, where

- (a) is the Participant's life annuity benefit in each plan, reflecting the application of the maximum pensionable compensation limits of IRC Section 401(a)(17), but not the maximum benefit limits of IRC Section 415 (as in effect on the Participant's date of retirement), and
- (b) is a life annuity actuarially equivalent benefit payable to the Participant under each plan, each such calculation made before applying the offset, if any, for payments under the Participant's Deferred Compensation Contract.

4.02 VESTING

A participant shall vest in that portion of his Excess Annuity Plan Benefit attributable to his Basic Retirement Plan and, if applicable, the Deferred Compensation Plan in accordance with the vesting provisions of each underlying plan.

4.03 COORDINATION WITH DEFERRED COMPENSATION CONTRACT

The annuity benefit determined in 4.01 above shall be reduced, but not below $0, by that portion of the benefit payable by the Authority under the Participant's Deferred Compensation Contract which has not already been applied as an offset to the Participant's Executive Deferred Compensation Annuity Plan benefit.

If a Participant's Excess Annuity Plan Benefit is reduced by application of this Section 4.03, the amount of the reduced benefit shall first be applied to pay the portion of the Excess Annuity Plan benefit defined in 4.01 attributable to the Basic Retirement Plan, actuarially adjusted if necessary to be paid in the same form of annuity as chosen by the Participant for that plan. Any remaining Excess Annuity Plan Benefit under this section 4.03 will be paid in the form of annuity selected by the Participant under the Deferred Compensation Plan.

ARTICLE V

PAYMENT OF BENEFIT

5.01 PAYMENT OF EXCESS BENEFIT ANNUITY

The benefit for a Participant who satisfies the eligibility provisions of Section 3.01 shall be determined under Article IV of the Plan.

5.02 DISTRIBUTIONS UNDER THIS PLAN

Payments of benefits to Participants and/or their designated beneficiaries for the portion of the benefit applicable to the Basic Retirement Plan(s), and if applicable, the Deferred Compensation Plan shall be paid in the same form of annuity as elected for each of the underlying plans, actuarially reduced, using the same actuarial adjustment factor that was applied to calculate the elected form of payment in the underlying plan.

Notwithstanding the above, if the Actuarial Equivalent lump sum value of the Excess Annuity Plan Benefit is $5,000 or less, the Excess Annuity Plan Benefit shall be paid as that lump sum, and no additional payments shall be made to the Participant and his or her beneficiaries, if any.

5.03 COMMENCEMENT OF BENEFIT

Excess Annuity Benefits shall commence coincident with benefits under the Basic Retirement Plan.

ARTICLE VI

FUNDING AND ADMINISTRATION

6.01 FUNDING

There is no fund associated with this Plan. The Employer shall be required to make payments only as benefits become due and payable. No person shall have any right, other than the right of an unsecured general creditor, against the Employer with respect to the benefits payable hereunder, or which may be payable hereunder, to any Participant, surviving spouse or beneficiary. If the Employer, acting in its sole discretion, establishes a reserve or other fund associated with this Plan, no person shall have any right to or interest in any specific amount or asset of such reserve or fund by reason of amounts which may be payable to such person under this Plan, nor shall such person have any right to receive any payment under this Plan except as and to the extent expressly provided in this Plan. The assets in any such reserve or fund shall be subject to the control of the Employer, and need not to be used to pay benefits hereunder.

6.02 DUTIES OF THE PLAN ADMINISTRATOR

The Plan shall be administered by the Plan Administrator in accordance with its terms and purposes. The Plan Administrator shall determine the amount and manner of payment of the benefits due to or on behalf of each Participant from the Plan and shall cause them to be paid by the Employer accordingly.

6.03 FINALITY OF DECISIONS

The Plan Administrator is expressly granted, without intending any limitation, the discretionary authority to construe and interpret the Plan and to determine all questions relating to eligibility, rights, and entitlement to benefits hereunder and such authorities as may be necessary for it to discharge its duties and responsibilities hereunder. Except as otherwise provided by law, all decisions made by and the actions taken by the Plan Administrator in connection with the administration and operation of the Plan shall be final and conclusive on all persons, and the Plan Administrator shall not be subject to liability with respect to the Plan.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS

7.01 NO GUARANTEE OF EMPLOYMENT

Nothing contained in this Plan shall be construed as a contract of employment between the Employer and any Participant, or as a right of any such Participant to be continued in the employment of the Employer, or as a limitation on the right of the Employer to deal with any Participant, as to his employment, discharge, layoff, compensation, and all other conditions of employment in all respects as though this Plan did not exist.

7.02 RIGHTS UNDER PLAN

Nothing in this Plan shall be construed to limit, broaden, restrict, or grant any right to a Participant, surviving spouse or any beneficiary thereof under the Plan, nor to grant any additional rights to any such person under the Plan, nor in any way to limit, modify, repeal or otherwise affect the Employer's right to amend or modify the Plan.

7.03 TERMINATION FOR CAUSE

If a Participant's employment with the Employer is terminated for cause then, notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no benefits shall be payable under Article V of the Plan to or with respect to such Participant. Termination for cause shall mean termination because of any dishonest act with respect to the Employer or its property, gross negligence or willful neglect in the performance of his duties as an Employee, or the failure of a Participant to fulfill his obligations under the Plan while an Employee of the Employer.

7.04 AMENDMENTS/TERMINATION

With respect to administrative or non-plan design matters, the Plan may be amended at any time by the Plan Administrator by executing a written instrument describing such change. The Plan may be terminated at any time, or amended at any time with respect to plan design matters by a vote duly adopted by the Board. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "plan design matters" refers to amendments that directly affect a Participant's eligibility for benefits or the amount of such benefits. The term "administrative or non-plan design matters" refers to all other changes including, but not limited to, provisions affecting the administration of the plan, as well as changes to plan provisions which are required by law.

In all cases, however, upon termination of this plan or upon an amendment for plan design matters a participant's Excess Annuity Plan Benefit will be protected as follows:

- (a) For a participant already receiving payments under the Plan, his Excess Annuity Plan Benefit may not be reduced below that benefit he is already receiving on the termination date or effective date of such amendment.
- (b) For a vested participant not yet in pay status, his Excess Annuity Plan Benefit shall not be reduced below that amount which, as of his actual retirement date, will be required to pay, under the terms of the Basic Retirement Plan, his Deferred Compensation Contract (if any), the Deferred Compensation Plan, and this Plan as they existed on the date of termination/amendment, the total benefit he had accrued under all of those plans as of the date of termination/amendment, recognizing the Section 415 limit in effect at his eventual benefit commencement date.

7.05 NONASSIGNABILITY

The benefits payable under this Plan shall not be subject to alienation, assignment, garnishment, execution or levy of any kind and any attempt to cause any benefits to be so subjected shall not be recognized, except to the extent required by applicable law.

7.06 ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Plan, including any subsequently adopted amendments, shall constitute the entire agreement. There are no covenants, promises, agreements, conditions or understandings, either oral or written, between the Employer and any Participant relating to the subject matter hereof, other than those set forth in this Plan. This Plan and any amendment shall be binding on the parties hereto and their respective heirs, administrators, trustees, successors and assigns, and on all designated beneficiaries of the Participant.

7.07 SUCCESSOR COMPANY

In the event of the dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Employer, provision may be made by which a successor to all or a major portion of the Employer's property or business shall continue this Plan, and the successor shall have all of the powers, duties and responsibilities of the Employer under this Plan.

7.08 GOVERNING LAW

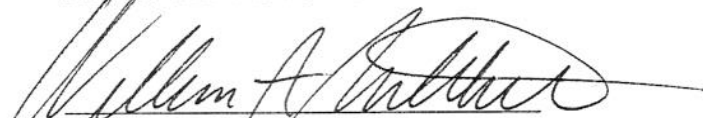

This Plan shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority has caused this instrument to be executed in its name and on its behalf this 28TH day of DECEMBER, 2001.
